FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The BC Sports Hall of Fame presents new All Access Experience!

Vancouver, B.C. (June 4, 2014) – The BC Sports Hall of Fame is proud to present our new All Access Experience providing an enhanced visit to the Hall of Fame including an exclusive behind the scenes tour of BC Place! The All Access Experience hits all the stadium highlights:

- The Media lounge
- The Premium Suite areas
- The team locker rooms (when available) and
- Access onto the field providing visitors with an amazing viewpoint of BC Place (when available).

The All Access Experience starts and finishes at the BC Sports Hall of Fame, which celebrates BC's best athletes and teams in a family friendly environment. Just a few of the must see exhibits at the Hall of Fame include the:

- One-of-a-kind Vancouver 2010 Gallery
- Inspirational Terry Fox and Rick Hansen Galleries and
- Participation ZONE where visitors can run, climb, throw and kick.

Executive Director, Allison Mailer shares, "Visitors to the BC Sports Hall of Fame are ready for more, the All Access Experience provides the behind the scenes exclusive look at BC Place that local visitors and international tourists are excited to experience. We are so appreciative of BC Place for helping us offer this enhanced product for the community."

Kathy deLisser, Assistant General Manager of BC Place added, "BC Place has been the home of our province's most memorable moments, but our guests rarely have the chance to see behind-the-scenes. We're excited to be able to support the BC Sports Hall of Fame and welcome everyone to experience our world-class facility from a truly unique perspective."
