ANNIVERSARIES

CELEBRATING GREAT MOMENTS IN BC SPORT

Anniversaries – Celebrating Great Moments in BC Sport is the newest temporary exhibit at the BC Sports Hall of Fame.

For close to 50 years the BC Sports Hall of Fame has showcased exceptional athletes and teams who have accomplished memorable moments in our province's sporting history. Our newest temporary exhibit features a few of these moments in the sports of ice hockey, golf, basketball, baseball, wrestling and triathlon. Explore 800 square feet featuring artifacts and a highlight video from sporting events marking significant anniversaries this year.

2015 marks the:

- 15th Anniversary of the 2000 Olympic gold medal wins of Simon Whitfield and Daniel Igali
- 60th Anniversary of the 1954-55 Penticton Vees' World Hockey Championship victory
- 70th Anniversary of the 1944-45 Vancouver Hedlunds' Canadian Championship - fourth of five national championships
- 90th Anniversary of the 1924-35 Victoria Cougars' Stanley Cup Victory
- 100th Anniversary of the 1914-15 Vancouver Millionaires' Stanley Cup Victory
- 100th Anniversary of the birth of one of BC's greatest professional golfers Stan Leonard
- 105th Anniversary of baseball's Bob Brown's arrival in Vancouver
- Just some of the BC Sports Hall of Fame's exceptional artifacts featured in Anniversaries – Celebrating Great Moments in BC Sport include:
- A 1939 Trail Smoke Eaters team jacket was worn by Jim Morris after the team, representing Canada, won the 1939 World Ice Hockey Championship in Switzerland
- Masters Tournament book given to Vancouver's Stan Leonard while competing in the golf tournament during the 1950s
- Smashed pocket watch from 1914 belonging to baseball's Bob Brown
- 1944-45 Vancouver Hedlunds' women's basketball team sweater was worn by guard Noreen Stoddart (image attached)
- 1914 rare Vancouver Beavers' pennants earned from winning their second Northwest League

- Original 1925 Stanley Cup program kept by Victoria Cougars' player Harold 'Slim' Halderson (image attached)

SPORTS ART

BY ARTIST JENNIFER ETTINGER

The new temporary exhibition also features original artwork of Jennifer Ettinger. On display you can see a number of Jennifer's vibrant and unique. Sport, especially baseball, has always keenly interested her and is reflected in her art. Jennifer has said that through her art she explores the mythology and need for heroes. She portrays sport heroes who have traits she admires as well as those players who have human frailties. For this and many other reasons, displaying her work at the BC Sports Hall of Fame is a perfect fit. Of the exhibit Jennifer says,

As an artist who specializes in sports art, I am especially interested in the historical aspects of the sports heroes that I paint. My work has progressed through many hours of practice and experimenting to find my personal style. The finished portrait or landscape is my way of celebrating outstanding athletes. I am honoured to have this exhibition of my work at the BC Sports Hall of Fame where athletes, and the people who celebrate these athletes such as myself, gather and feel the accomplishment these incredible sports heroes share with us."

Anniversaries – Celebrating Great Moments in BC Sport at the BC Sports Hall of Fame is open to the public seven days a week from 10 am to 5 pm at Gate A of BC Place in Vancouver.
